POR UNA MOSCA DE NADA

Written by Gracia Iglesias / Illustrated by Ana Gómez

What can happen when a fly gets into inconvenient place? A total mess! What if every attempt to fix it makes it worse?

This is the funny story of just a little fly that was swallowed by accident. As the fly buzzed in his stomach, the man decided to gulp down a spider to catch it. The spider not only caught the fly but knitted a net that tickled the poor man. Our friend decided then that a bird could solve the problem -and did - but it also built a nest inside him. Do you really want to know how this story continues?

A mi vecino de arriba, aunque es flacucho y pequeño le gusta tanto comer, que un día se comió un sueño.

Pero aquello no fue nada comparado con el día en que bebiendo del caño se tragó una MOSCA viva.

Como la mosca zumbaba, picaba y aleteaba en su barriga vacía, mi vecino ya no hablaba, ni comía, ni dormía.

Por quitarse aquel picor fue a consultar a un doctor.

TICK TOCK QUACK!

Written by Roberto Aliaga / Illustrated by Iratxe López de Munáin

There once lived an alarm clock in the window of a watch shop. He had been there for a long long time. No one wanted to buy him, because he never was at the right time... And how could he possibly get it, if he did not know how to count?"

This is the beginning of a heartwarming story about diversity, hidden talents, perseverance and friendship, because with friends... everything can be achieved!

Y allí estaba, cabizbajo, el señor Pato, con las patas metidas en el agua.

—Hola, señor Pato —dijo el reloj, regalándole la mejor de sus sonrisas—. Nunca voy en hora, porque no sé contar...
¡Pero sueño de maravilla! —y movió la cabeza de izquierda a derecha, emitiendo su gracioso tilin— Creo que usted y yo tenemos que hablar...

CENTRAL STATION

Written by Aurora Ruá / Illustrated by Julio A. Blasco

Love is in the air! Lili works as a barista in the Coffee Shop at a train station and gets quite a lot of attention but she only has eyes for one of the engine drivers. This is a hilarious and colorful story about modern princes and princesses, funny misunderstandings, exotic birds, pizza, coffee and... love.

Pero cuando oía el silbido que anunciaba su regreso, bailaba entre las mesas, los preparaba dulces y espumosos
y regalaba bombones.

FANTASTIC DAD

Written by Daniel Nesquens / Illustrated by Goyo Rodríguez

Dad has a rare ability, the kind of ability that almost turns him up in a superhero – he finds all sorts of interesting and unusual things along the way. He brings all of those things home so there is not enough space in the family house. One day he finds the ultimate thing: a weird place to keep them sorted. That will make him start a great job of tidying up his belongings which will turn his ability into something even more rare: the ability of show love.

This book is also a game where the illustrations can be very naughty! Is it a hat or is it an apple? Is it a fish or is it an eye? Pay attention to detail and enjoy guessing a lot of questions like these ones.

THE PRINCE WHO DID NOT WANT TO BE KING

Written by Margarita del Mazo / Illustrated by Yael Frankel

Once upon a time there was a child born in a very distant kingdom. His parents, the Kings, expected Prince Louis to become a King one day and defend the castle as he had been taught. But Louis had his own plans... art would be his best weapon.

Siempre que la Reina regresaba, Príncipe Luis salía a recibirla con un regalo y una pregunta.

—Jugamos a hijos y mamá?
—Ahora no puedo. Debo construir un muro tan alto como el del enemigo. Pinta un rato.

THE EXTRAORDINARY STORY OF HIPPO AND LOBSTER

Written and illustrated by Nono Granero

The extraordinary story of Hippo and Lobster tells the incredible adventures that build up the friendship of a hippo who experiences the sea for the first time and a lobster who loves coffee. This is an alphabet book, where you have to guess the missing words to continue the story. Achieving this will be easier reading aloud the funny rhymes. It is a book and a game at the same time, great for sharing!

The around the world adventure of Hippo and Lobster is the continuation book for older children.

MYSTERY FISH

Written by Daniel Nesquens / Illustrated by Harantula

Mystery Fish is the story of a red hat with a ribbon of white silk. A hat that was not just a hat. A hat that swam between two worlds: one upwards and the other one downwards. A magical story of a hat that turns into a fish just by being allowed to be so.

State of the art illustrations by artist Harantula and a innovative dual design.
